My darling loving Gilberto

Te hablo en Español porque me resulta mas conveniente en esta situación a donde estoy atrapada mucho en lo que estoy haciendo ¡aínda!

It's obvious that even in this pathetic place people have a serious problem with my presence, that is they believe they are all much better than me even though I have given them no such idea in the first place.

The atmosphere is really crap and I owe stupid money for things that I don't really want but that I have graciously accepted out of loving friendship and nothing else, as false I am not.

Anyway I'm calling you now to let you know that I really have had alot of patience throughout my entire life in order to suit OTHERS. But at this point I also have my limits and dignity thank you. My father is helping a little but he is not omnipotent either.

I thought I had friends in life but I've been unjustly in prison now for 2 years and nobody has made a sign at me to say I'm thinking of you or something of that nature.

If my life is so then why stay alive at all? I've explained and explained and shown and shared and loved what I was doing when I was doing well in Paris and I ended up in PRISON IN BRASIL, WHY?

You know Gil, I don't enjoy bein' hated by people for 'NO APPARENT REASONS.

I s'we don't deserve it and neither does anyone actually!!

I am now sleepin' on the floor on a mattress because I've had serious HEART PROBLEMS and I've also been poisoned. What more is ~~supposed~~ supposed to happen? The fact is, is that I love to be alive in healthy conditions who appreciate my company and ^{NOT} use my ass for receiving things when they need them etc etc.

Gil, I need help a little bit more from my friends, but STILL NOTHING.

Well guess what, I really will die and only you will benefit from my art as I want my paintings to go to you if ever that happens, as Bourne is not really moving fast enough to do something. But Good Luck without me then, and have a nice life I hope.

It would be a SHAME don't you think? I'm not UGLY you know?

But Prison don't become me! If only you knew what I've have to deal with, your hair would drop I tell you.

So, if you are a friend to me a little, please make sure you hurry up or it will be TOO LATE and trust me No it won't be Good for ANYONE AT ALL.

(a) Because Deus NÃO CASTIGA UM FILHO QUE ESTÁ INOCENTE. (b) Because God loves me

if you don't mind too much, not only you famous people who seem to have right to him only.

I'm sorry Gil, but I don't live with illusions, I live with reality and this one ain't mine 'cause I didn't create it, thank God.

However I ain't adaptin' to no shit no more 'cause I'm tired of it.

Women in here are uneducated, spiteful, nasty bitch and everything horrible you can imagine + they think I'm stupid.

I don't like women, just remember that, apart from the artists I represent whom are of a different level, if you don't mind. But they are individual persons who possess a heart. In here you just don't know what the fuck these ass holes are up to.

I don't honestly know one person who is really a friend to me in here, sincerely, they all think they clever.

It's a shame on your country I tell you, but good luck to you all if it carries on because my father is not a dick head either and you'll find that the problems will get worse and I'll fucking make sure of it, trust me.

Don't forget Obama is a brother as well and he really is a friend I know.

Trust me Gil, that if nothing is done within the next month I will personally appeal to the American Police and have people arrested because I don't like being treated like shit and taken for granted.

With this I'm sorry to talk like that but I've lost all my art and I'm steamin'
I tell you.

So, baa soffe is a good song yes!
But Ben Harper is also my friend

I hope you read this clever and not like an insult to you which I assure you it's not, I hope you've received my previous letters.

But yes I AM A SERIOUS PERSON and
NOT A (criminal) small minded.

Thank you I now have 2 Diplomas of art obtained at Talavera Bruce so I've been busy.

Thank you for your kind attention

Kind regards,

Cecilia Maximilia
