Dear Mr Gil

A LETTER FROM THE HON. GENERAL EDITOR

Your name has been commended to me for biographical inclusion in the Thirty-Third Edition of the Dictionary of International Biography, to be published in September 2006.

The first edition was published in 1963 and in the following forty years Dictionary of International Biography has featured over 200,000 biographies of men and women from all walks of life and all continents. Copies of the book reside in university and civil libraries around the world including the Library of Congress in Washington D.C. and the British Library in London. The status of D.I.B. has grown steadily over the years and is now one of the most referred-to texts being regularly produced.

The Thirty-Third Edition of Dictionary of International Biography will include some six thousand biographies of people like yourself - men and women of achievement - from many countries: indeed, most nations will be represented within its pages. It is published from the International Biographical Centre, Cambridge, England, and the Thirty-Third Edition will maintain the traditional high standards of its precursors.

There is no charge or fee of any kind for the publication of your biography nor are you under any obligation to purchase a copy. The completion of the enclosed questionnaire carries no further involvement unless, of course, you wish to order. In this event, there are most advantageous terms for biographees and these are shown on the back page of the questionnaire.

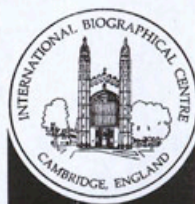

I very much look forward to receiving your completed questionnaire.

With thanks in advance and best wishes.

Sincerely,

Nicholas S. Law
Hon. General Editor

THE ROYAL EDITION

Arrangements have been made to produce, entirely by hand, the superb Royal Edition of D.I.B. 33 (so named because it is housed in the private libraries of Kings and Queens) in a strictly limited edition. The Royal Edition will contain approximately 1000 pages; it is sewn and bound by hand in full red Morocco leather and has gold-edged leaves. There are five raised bands on the spine, hand-worked silk head and tail bands, and seven gold panels. There are double gold lines around the inside front cover and single gold lines around the outside covers. All the gold used is of 22 carat. If requested, the name of the owner can be embossed in gold on the front cover at no extra charge. The Royal Edition, a superb example of the craftsman's art, is available only to Heads of State, Royalty and Biographers.

DESPATCH OF ALL BOOKS WILL BE IMMEDIATELY ON PUBLICATION, CURRENTLY SCHEDULED FOR SEPTEMBER 2006, CERTIFICATES WILL BE DESPATCHED WITHIN TWELVE WEEKS OF RECEIPT OF PAYMENT. ALL GOODS ARE UNCONDITIONALLY GUARANTEED

DICTIONARY OF INTERNATIONAL BIOGRAPHY

THIRTY-THIRD EDITION

Publication scheduled for September 2006

THE FLAGSHIP PUBLICATION OF THE INTERNATIONAL BIOGRAPHICAL CENTRE

YOUR NAME, as mentioned in the accompanying letter, has been put forward for biographical inclusion in the Thirty-Third Edition of the world-famed British work of reference published by the International Biographical Centre of Cambridge, England. It is hoped that you will kindly complete the personal questionnaire and return it within fourteen days of receipt if possible and in no event later than the date stamped below. Your biography will then be prepared by our editors and a typescript will be sent to you for approval. D.I.B. 33 is scheduled for publication in September 2006.

The Dictionary of International Biography, established in 1960 and first published in 1963, may now be consulted in the major National and State libraries of the world and in thousands of other libraries. It is acknowledged as a leading work of biographical reference and because it is so international, enjoys the official patronage of Heads of States and Government.

The Hon. General Editor of the Dictionary of International Biography is Nicholas S. Law, of Cambridge, England, the successor to the first General Editor and Director General of the International Biographical Centre until 1993 - Ernest Kay.

It cannot be emphasised too strongly that there is no charge or fee of any kind for biographical inclusion nor is there any obligation to purchase. Should you so wish, however, you are entitled (as a biographee) to special terms detailed on the back page representing reductions of up to thirty percent on the published price.

Dictionary of International Biography has been published continuously by the International Biographical Centre for more than forty years. Over 200,000 people from nearly every nation have been profiled within its pages in that time and it has earned a reputation as a highly respected reference source. We are proud to call it our "flagship" publication.

You have been selected for inclusion in this prestigious title and we hope that you will take the time to fill out this Personal Biographical Questionnaire. Alternatively, you may send your prepared Curriculum Vitae with all relative details, or of course, email the same to us on editorial@intbiogc.com.

Provision is made overleaf for you to secure your own commemorative copy should you wish although we must reiterate that inclusion carries absolutely no obligation and is based on merit alone.

Your name may have been recommended to the Editorial Board by more than one of our advisory researchers, and it is therefore possible for you to receive more than one questionnaire. In this event, kindly ignore the duplicate
