Dear Sir :

By our letter of September 21, 1965 addressed to Mr. A/L. De Silva, we accepted to withdraw the U.S.A. and Canada - in addition to Brazil - from your agreement with BIEM of January 1st, 1960, but we requested again Mr. De Silva to send us a complete list of your compositions published by Corcovado Music, showing the percentage of mechanical rights due you.

We have not received any answer to that request.

Besides, for a long time you have not declared to us any of your compositions and we are advised that your royalties are now claimed directly by Corcovado Music Corp. (not member of BIEM) to record manufacturers who consequently refuse to pay us anything on your behalf.

These facts are an infringement to Art. 23 (2°) and 24 of our General Rules.

Under the circumstances, our agreement of January 1st, 1960, is useless and we inform you that we shall consider it as denounced by mutual consent from April 1st, 1966, unless in the meantime you advise us that you do not agree, and send us a complete list of your compositions showing the percentage of mechanical rights due you.

Sincerely yours,

Le Chef du Service Juridique :

J. ELISSARIDE.
