Re: United Nations Concert

Dear Gil:

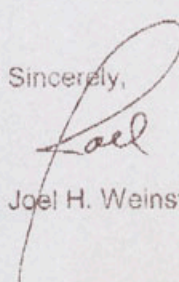

It was a great honor to see your performance at the United Nations. It lifted my spirits and I can only imagine how it helped those people much more closely involved with the tragic losses in Baghdad.

I also appreciate the fact that you spent time with me after the show while the diplomats and important guests were waiting to offer their congratulations to you!

On my way home that evening, my sense of pride and of joy could not have been greater. I only wish my wife, Ann, was there to share the experience.

I can never repay you for the privilege of seeing so many of your wonderful shows over the years and I will certainly never forget this great event at the United Nations.

Sincerely,

Joel H. Weinstein
